

WESTprotect has been informed of a breach in account access to Constant Contact which led to a large number of emails being distributed.

If you received a suspicious email via Constant Contact referring to debit payments or invoices, please delete it immediately and do not click on any links contained within the email. It was confirmed that it was not malicious but a credential harvesting email, this was strictly a phishing campaign and has since been deleted.